who is SHEWANDERS

Shewanders Photography is a San Diego, California-based studio available for worldwide travel whose lead photographers are Suzanne Hansen Ofeldt and Mike Ofeldt. We capture the powerful essence of relationships and celebrations by collaborating with creatives who live life loudly. We are honored to skillfully combine a professional framework with our photography to create art that is honest, quirky, engaging, and personal.

Through our 15 years of experience, we have refined a practice that uses our clients' vision and style as a north star for our work. We blend formal and editorial photography to provide complete coverage of your proposal, wedding, family gathering, or bucket list adventure. We want to know you, and we bring genuine enthusiasm to each project we have our hands in.

Shewanders maintains a limited client base annually so that the ideal time and attention is provided to you throughout the entire journey.

LET'S WANDER TOGETHER.

The world is a book

MANIFESTO

we believe

That art is everything and our lives are a canvas.

In wanderlust and exploration.

IN INSPIRATION: Pablo Picasso, Frank Gehry, Prince, Julie Timor, Bruce Lee, Richard Avedon, & Nara Yoshimoto.

Your story should be shared through photography.

That 30,000 feet above sea level is a magical place.

IN PASSION, COLOR, ADVENTURE, and endless summers.

That photography should make you feel.

That everyone should invest in themselves.

we believe

In daydreamers, daytrippers, and wishmakers.

The color yellow promotes joy. 🐎

IN CREATING pictures that reflect who you are and who you want to be.

In love, buying locally, supporting imagination,
and supporting each other.

THE PROCESS

For starters...

Let's meet. Let's grab a coffee, or a cocktail, or a cozy spot of your choosing. What's your story? Who are you as individuals, a dynamic duo, a family? Tell us. Your wedding day is yours. Share your vision. Open our eyes.

The engagement shoot

The engagement shoot is the best and most beautiful way for us to build a relationship. It's your opportunity to establish comfort in front of the lens. It's our opportunity to unlock your super powers. So let's create something spectacular....

Photographs of you exploring the streets of your favorite city at night?

Images that reflect your obsession with surfing or sushi?

Pictures that portray you being you, loving what you love and each other?

The engagement shoot ranges from one to three hours. Images are provided in color and black and white, both in high and low resolution, approximately three weeks after the shoot.

We offer beautiful albums and fun guest books for your wedding day that are a great way to showcase your engagement shoot.

Getting close

We meet with you four to six weeks in advance of your wedding day to discuss the details. We provide you with a questionnaire to complete prior to our meeting, which will take the guesswork out of planning what memories you want to preserve most. It will also establish our timeline for the day.

Reliving the moments

We provide you with a beautiful USB drive of images in color and black and white, both in high and low resolution, six to eight weeks after your wedding. Images may be delivered by mail or over cocktails to discuss the amazing adventures you experienced on your honeymoon.

This isn't goodbye

Our clients are notoriously our friends. We hope you keep us in mind when your wanderings are cause for celebration; we'd love to be there, behind the lens and just because.

I adore Shewanders Photography; their love for life is infectious. They understand the importance of putting people at ease and capturing the true essence of their client's personal story. On a technical note, they are masters at capturing the most perfect natural light, never a filter or photographic trick, just pure magic! I love them, I love every image they have taken of my family and would highly recommend them to anyone who asks, and even those who don't ask.

Pinwheel Projects

Suzanne sees the world in a way that I've never encountered. She brings creativity and magic to the people and places around her, telling a raw story that may even pleasantly surprise her subjects. When I looked at our wedding photos, I was in awe of the special, beautiful, and candid moments she captured. Aside from her unique talent as a photographer, she's just a fun, genuine person. The kind of person that always leaves you feeling happy and inspired, whether it's a simple conversation, a casual photo shoot, or "the big day". I can't wait to have her continue to document our growing family's love story.

Jenna Nienhuis

The second I interviewed Suzanne to be my wedding photographer I knew she was perfect and we'd be instant friends. Her vibrant happiness for life and genuine passion for capturing my big day was transparent in her glowing expressions. I just love her energy and her personality!
